Paula Forbis was appointed as the Air Pollution Control Officer (APCO) for the San Diego County Air Pollution Control District on January 19, 2022. Prior to her appointment, Paula served as District counsel with the Office of County Counsel. Taking this position in 2008, she became a Team Leader for the office in 2016, overseeing attorneys for the Department of Environmental Health and Quality (DEHQ) and Planning and Development Services (PDS) - Code Enforcement. She was appointed as the SDAPCD Interim APCO in September of 2021. Before coming to the County, Paula worked for the Environmental Health Coalition (EHC) for 12 years as in-house counsel and a Campaign Manager for EHC's Toxic-Free Neighborhoods Campaign. Paula received her B.A. in Political Science from UCLA, her J.D. from the University of San Diego, and a certificate in Public Participation from the International Association of Public Participation (IAP2).
